Glossary for users

Homepage- the primary landing page of a website, a main page where sections with recent games and new games are displayed .

Registration page - the registration page for the website, allowing users to create new accounts by providing their personal details and agreeing to the terms and conditions.

Dashboard- a web page designed for administrators, which enables them to manage users, orders, genres, and platforms by adding, deleting, and editing data.

View games (перегляд товарів/ігор)-the page where users can browse and explore the available products or games offered for sale

.

Cart(кошик)- a virtual container within an e-commerce website where users can temporarily store items they intend to purchase.

Login page – a web page within an application that prompts registered users to enter their username and password, in order to gain access to the application

Buy component- a module or part of a Java application responsible for facilitating the process of placing an order.

Filter of items- an individual component within a filtering system that enables users to narrow down a set of items(games) based on specific criteria.

Deployment-the process of making a software application available for use by its intended users.